Dear friends,

Christmas is just around the corner again and there's loads going on in the Benefice, so I hope to see you at some point in the coming weeks. As ever, though, it's important for us all to pause and to look beyond the festivities to remind ourselves of what it is that we're celebrating each year at Christmas.

It doesn't take a moment to scan the news headlines, or even just to open our eyes as we walk around our town or villages, and to see the mess that we create in the world when we live for ourselves at the expense of others. But at Christmas perhaps more than any other time, we remember how God stepped into that mess: making himself vulnerable by living as one of us and giving himself to serve us within - and ultimately to save us from - our mess.

This Christmas, whatever mess your eyes are opened to see as you look beyond yourselves, may I encourage you not just to hide behind the superficial celebrations, but to ask how you can properly celebrate what Jesus has done for you by following his example?

It may only be in God's power truly to save, but every single one of us can choose to serve. It's when we give ourselves actually to step into the mess for the sake of others that we bring them not just the passing flicker of cheer that Christmas is so often reduced to, but real joy and real transformation. As we give ourselves to love and to serve, following the example of that baby laid in a manger 2000 years ago, that's when we can be surprised to discover the true meaning of joy. As we step into the mess and give ourselves, that's when lives are truly transformed - our own, and those of the people around us. It's my prayer that your lives are marked by that kind of transformation as you celebrate Christmas the way that Jesus does this year.

With every blessing,
James Kennedy (Team Rector)

Little Compton W.I. Icing sugar was much in evidence as members, under Jayne Hanks' guidance, tried their hands at making sugar paste Christmas roses for our Christmas cakes! We were amazed at what an expert can do when Jayne showed us some of her delicate work. December meeting is a party for members and their families only. The 2019 season for WI starts on January 3rd at 2.30 pm in the Village Hall with a suitably wintry talk, from Pete Milner, entitled Antarctic. (That's where penguins can be found). Come and join us for an interesting talk and refreshments.

St Denys' Church News

This year the sum of £200 was sent to "The Royal British Legion" The Remembrance service was attended by 87 adults, some extremely well behaved children and 3 beautiful Collie dogs. Six Wreaths were placed at the memorial along with numerous wooden crosses and poppies. A new banner of Remembrance has been hung in church to commemorate the 100th Anniversary.

St Denys' Carol Concert - Sunday 9th Dec at 6pm - Led by Rev David Salter with organist Peter Savidge

Bring along family and friends to what will be a very merry, light and jolly evening of traditional carols, chorales, and readings. Refreshment to follow.

There will be a Food Bank collection point in church on the night of the Carol Concert. If you can help, the food bank desperately need UHT milk and fruit juices, tins of fruit, vegetables, rice pudding and custard. Your kind act of generosity will help in relieving the pressure on local families. Some parents struggle to feed their children without the support of school meals, during Christmas Holidays.

I know charity letters are dropping through the letter box on a daily basis but please know whatever you give will go directly to a very local family. People use food banks because they are desperate; it is a last resort for some. It is not an easy thing asking for help.

If you would like food items collected, make a monetary donation, would like to learn more about helping or would like to talk to someone about getting support for yourself, please contact Susie Cooper on 01608 674 234. All calls will be held in strictest confidence.

Verses of the month - Philippians 2: 5-8

"...have the same mindset as Christ Jesus, who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death — even death on a cross!

News from CHASTLETON- Katherin Townsend 674347

It was great that Patrick Eve organised a simple bell ringing at Chastleton Church to honour the End of the First World War. It was what you might call a scratch team!

But the unpractised, for sometime, ringers, Patrick Eve, son Tom and newby ringer, wife Sarah, plus Des Townsend and Sarah Cotter-Craig made a good sound of chimes for half an hour. They would liked to have been more ambitious, but need to practise, which means finding a new bell tower captain. Please spread the word that there are keen people who started way back; when our rector was Glyn Evans who was influential in helping raise the money via the Diocese. The villagers ran various fund raising events, including a dance at Chastleton House, pre NT, to be able to renew the works of the bells so they could be rung. It would be good to be able start again. It's always beneficial to learn a new skill and knit the community together.

A good time was had by all who attended the tea party of Chastleton residents at Chastleton House, thank you.
